

HOME > HOLIDAYS & OCCASIONS > THANKSGIVING

10 Chef-Approved Wines to Drink at Thanksgiving

By Arianna Friedman | Oct 11, 2017 @ 12:00 pm

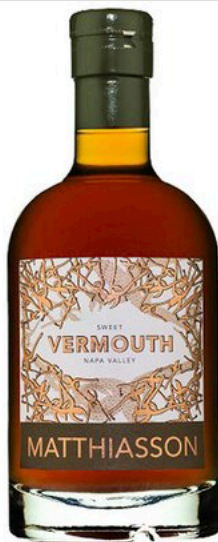

3 of 10

Allie Poindexter, Co-owner-Sommelier at Henrietta Red, Nashville, TN

$35
available at Matthiasson

SHOP IT

COURTESY

"When putting together a wine list for Thanksgiving, most people rarely include vermouth as an option. Matthiasson winery in Napa Valley makes a delicious sweet vermouth flavored with homegrown blood oranges and sour cherries. The perfect companion for charcuterie and cheese plates, or pumpkin and pecan pie, I'll serve it up at my Thanksgiving table and create converts along the way."

3 of 10 | View All

NEXT SLIDE →